

February 23, 2015

Euro Properties Commences Demolition at 118 East 59th Street To Make Way For Luxury Condominium Tower

Euro Properties, an international real estate development firm with 25 years of experience building luxury homes in major cities across the globe, commenced demolition work on its first development in Manhattan, the condominium tower at 118 East 59th Street. Soo K. Chan Founding Principal and Design Director of SCDA Architects is responsible for the building's design, and this building will be his tallest tower in Manhattan. The announcement was made by Que Yau Neo, CEO of Euro Properties.

"This work signifies the start of an exciting, transformative project that will yield true expressions of individual living in this vibrant Manhattan district," said Mr. Neo. "We are proud to start work here, and look forward to introducing our unique approach to development and exceptional lifestyles to this market."

The 38-story condominium tower located at 118 East 59th Street will offer 29 full-floor and larger residences. The building is anchored by a three-floor retail condominium at its base. Brown Harris Stevens Development Marketing has been retained as the exclusive marketing and sales agent for 118 East 59th Street.